Re: NOTICE OF PRE-SEIZURE OF VESSEL - case 2023-27044

The blue and white Catamaran boat pictured below with no registration number was issued pre-seizure notice on 8/22/23 by the Portland Bureau of Transportation Parking Enforcement Division (Enforcement Agency) for parking illegally in the public right-of-way, in violation of Portland City Code 16.20.170. In accordance with ORS 830.908 (1), the boat is considered an "Abandoned vessel" left without authorization on public or private land, the waters of this state, or any other water.

The enforcement agency proposes to seize the vessel by reason of being an abandoned vessel, a derelict vessel, or both. To avoid the seizure of the vessel, it must be removed by:

7:00 am on September 6, 2023.

If the vessel is seized, you may be liable for the costs of salvage, towing and storage of the vessel. If the salvage, towing and storage fees are not paid, the vessel may be destroyed or sold, and you may remain liable for unpaid expenses in addition to the cost of destroying the vessel.

An owner of a vessel may request a hearing before an enforcement agency seizes a vessel under ORS 830.908 by submitting a request for a hearing to the enforcement agency not more than 10 business days after the notice required by this section is given. The request must indicate if the owner contends that the vessel is not abandoned or derelict or indicate such other specific grounds on which seizure of the vessel is challenged.

You may request an appeal before a Code Hearings Officer under the provisions of Portland City Code Chapter 16.30. To arrange a hearing, you must submit an appeal hearing request online no later than 10 business days after the date of this determination. Your request must include a description of what you believe makes this determination invalid along with copies of any evidence you wish to submit. You may file your appeal at the address below:

City of Portland Code Hearings Office
<http://www.portlandoregon.gov/hearings/>
Phone 503-823-7307
Fax 503-823-4347

You will receive an acknowledgment from the Code Hearings Office if you submit an appeal request. Please note that if you request an appeal, the decision in this letter may be stayed until the Hearings Officer makes a final determination.
